

TRANSPORTATION RESOURCES

Tennessee Department of Transportation's Public Transit Services:

Links to information about public transit options, including fixed-route bus service, express buses, local shuttles, rural transit, and complementary paratransit in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). They update the site regularly and the listings are by Tennessee region.

Tennessee Disability Pathfinder:

Pathfinder gives you access to a statewide database of services including transportation. You can search the updated database by region or service type or narrow it further with their advanced search feature.

If you need one-on-one attention, call their helpline at 1-800-640-4636.

Rider's Guide to Public Transit for People with Disabilities:

This guide is designed to assist you in accessing your fixed route and ADA complementary paratransit systems by describing your rights and responsibilities under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and by offering useful tips that may increase your chances for a successful ride.

2-1-1:

One of the easiest ways to get help is by dialing 2-1-1, Tennessee's community services help line. When you call, you'll get a real person, one who is trained to help you sort out your needs, and then give you phone numbers and addresses of the closest places where you can get help. You can also find their resource directory online.
