

Ask the following questions and record the answers

High School Staff

Name of person being interviewed: _____

Title: _____

Question	Answer
Do the supports that a student with a disability gets in high school automatically transfer with them to college?
Are learning expectations the same for people with and without disabilities? Why or Why not?
Can a student be excluded from an activity because of their disability?
Is the student responsible for making sure they get the supports they need in school?

Ask the following questions and record the answers

College Staff

Name of person being interviewed: _____

Title: _____

Question	Answer
Do students get the same supports and services in college as they did in high school?
Are learning expectations the same for people with and without disabilities? Why or Why not?
Can a student be excluded from meetings, trainings, or activities because they have a disability?
Is the student responsible for making sure they get the supports they need in their college classes?

Compare and contrast your interview results and answer the questions below

Post-Interview Reflection

1. What similarities and differences did you discover between high school and college?

2. What are the differences in how you get accommodations in high school and college?

3. Whose responsibility is it to make sure you get the supports you need in high school, and how does that change when you enter college?

4. Why do you think it is important to know and understand these similarities and differences before you begin your college experience?