

Instructions: Read about each student preparing for employment. Label the type of employment they are seeking. Then, identify each job option as a high demand or low demand job opportunity.

1. Kameron is looking for a job where she can work no more than 20 hours a week. She is very outgoing and loves being around other people. Kameron thinks that a customer service job would be a great fit for her. She looks at the local coffee shop which has one opening for one Barista. She also looks at the 3 grocery stores in her area which have a total of 12 cashier positions open.

Employment Type	<input type="checkbox"/> Full-Time	<input type="checkbox"/> Part-Time
High Demand Job	<input type="checkbox"/> Cashier	<input type="checkbox"/> Barista
Low Demand Job	<input type="checkbox"/> Cashier	<input type="checkbox"/> Barista

2. Matthew is looking for a job where he will work between 35-40 hours a week. He loves cooking and thinks that he would want a job in the food services industry. He found several local restaurants that are hiring line cooks. He also found a local bakery that is hiring one new baker.

Employment Type	<input type="checkbox"/> Full-Time	<input type="checkbox"/> Part-Time
High Demand Job	<input type="checkbox"/> Baker	<input type="checkbox"/> Line Cook
Low Demand Job	<input type="checkbox"/> Baker	<input type="checkbox"/> Line Cook

3. Sasha wants a job that can be adapted to her needs. She needs to work from home and can only work 1-2 hours a day. She loves photoshop and video editing and wants to find a job where she can use these skills. She looks into a clothing company that is hiring 6 new photo editors to edit photos for their website. She also finds a company that is looking for a single video editor to create a commercial for their website. She reaches out to the companies to discuss creating a position for her.

Employment Type	<input type="checkbox"/> Full-Time	<input type="checkbox"/> Customized Employment
High Demand Job	<input type="checkbox"/> Photo Editor	<input type="checkbox"/> Video Editor
Low Demand Job	<input type="checkbox"/> Photo Editor	<input type="checkbox"/> Video Editor

4. Travis wants to find a job where he will work no more than 20 hours a week. He has experience in customer service and loves to help other people. Travis lives in a big city and thinks that a job in the hospitality and tourism cluster would fit his interests well. After researching job openings, Travis finds a hotel that is opening soon and needs to hire 6 tour guides to provide tours to the guests. The same hotel also has 1 job opening for a front desk concierge position.

Employment Type	<input type="checkbox"/> Full-Time	<input type="checkbox"/> Part-Time
High Demand Job	<input type="checkbox"/> Front Desk Concierge	<input type="checkbox"/> Tour Guide
Low Demand Job	<input type="checkbox"/> Front Desk Concierge	<input type="checkbox"/> Tour Guide

5. Candace is an artist and wants to start her own small business selling her artwork. She loves to make personalized jewelry as well as customized paintings. Candace decides to research other small businesses in the area to see what type of art products are in higher demand. She finds several businesses in her community that sell custom-made jewelry at a local jewelry farmers market. She only finds one business selling paintings and canvases.

Employment Type	<input type="checkbox"/> Self-Employment	<input type="checkbox"/> Part-Time
High Demand Job	<input type="checkbox"/> Making and Selling Jewelry	<input type="checkbox"/> Painting and Selling Canvases
Low Demand Job	<input type="checkbox"/> Making and Selling Jewelry	<input type="checkbox"/> Painting and Selling Canvases

6. Grayson loves to work and wants to find a job where he can work around 40 hours a week. He loves being around kids and wants to find a job in a school setting. He found a local school that is hiring 10 teacher assistants for the classrooms. That same school is also looking for a library assistant who will assist the students when they come to check out books.

Employment Type	<input type="checkbox"/> Full-Time	<input type="checkbox"/> Part-Time
High Demand Job	<input type="checkbox"/> Teacher Assistant	<input type="checkbox"/> Library Assistant
Low Demand Job	<input type="checkbox"/> Teacher Assistant	<input type="checkbox"/> Library Assistant

7. Reagan is looking for a job where she can work on her computer from home. She is very experienced with computers and thinks a job done virtually would best fit her needs. Reagan found a company that is looking to hire one graphic designer to make images for their website. She also found a company that is looking to hire a digital marketing team of 8 people.

Employment Type	<input type="checkbox"/> Work in Office	<input type="checkbox"/> Telework
High Demand Job	<input type="checkbox"/> Graphic Designer	<input type="checkbox"/> Digital Marketer
Low Demand Job	<input type="checkbox"/> Graphic Designer	<input type="checkbox"/> Digital Marketer

8. Diego is looking for a customized job position that allows him to work both in the field and at home. He loves sports and wants to find a job in the sports industry. After researching jobs in his community, Diego found that a local basketball team is looking to hire a new photographer to take pictures and videos at each game. He also found local newspapers that are looking to fill several openings for sports journalists.

Employment Type	<input type="checkbox"/> Full-Time	<input type="checkbox"/> Customized Employment
High Demand Job	<input type="checkbox"/> Sports Photographer	<input type="checkbox"/> Sports Journalist
Low Demand Job	<input type="checkbox"/> Sports Photographer	<input type="checkbox"/> Sports Journalist

9. Francesca is hoping to start her own business. She loves both kids and pets and wants to start a small business. To decide what type of business she wants to start, Francesca sends out a survey to the people in her community to find out which business is in higher demand. She learns that people are more likely to use a pet sitting business than a babysitting business.

Employment Type	<input type="checkbox"/> Self-Employment	<input type="checkbox"/> Part-Time
High Demand Job	<input type="checkbox"/> Pet Sitting	<input type="checkbox"/> Babysitting
Low Demand Job	<input type="checkbox"/> Pet Sitting	<input type="checkbox"/> Babysitting

10. Victor is looking for a job where he will only have to work 10 hours a week. He loves animals and wants to find a job where he can take care of them. After researching jobs in his area, he finds that a local veterinarian office has one opening for a vet assistant. He also found that a new pet groomer business is opening and is looking to hire 7 groomers.

Employment Type	<input type="checkbox"/> Full-Time	<input type="checkbox"/> Part-Time
High Demand Job	<input type="checkbox"/> Vet Assistant	<input type="checkbox"/> Pet Groomer
Low Demand Job	<input type="checkbox"/> Vet Assistant	<input type="checkbox"/> Pet Groomer