

Resource Interview Activity

Instructions: After reviewing different types of resources, select two resources that may be able to help you find a job. Visit the resources in your community and interview a staff member at the organization to gather information that can help you determine if this is a resource you need. Complete the charts below. After the visit or interview, answer the reflection questions. If you are interested in gathering information on other organizations or resources, you can use this form.

Remember, resources that can help you with employment can include:

- Vocational Rehabilitation
- Work sites
- Volunteer sites
- Employment support agencies
- Job coaches
