Class Shadow Post-Interview and Reflection

After a student completes a class shadow, use this form to gather information about their experience. Record their responses and any ideas that will guide services based on what they learned or observed.

Questions:

1. Where did you complete your class shadow?

2. What class did you shadow?

3. What was your favorite part about the experience?

4. If you could change one thing about the class, what would it be?
5. Would you need any accommodations to be successful in this class?
6. What questions did you ask the professor or current students in the class?
7. Did this class support your current career goals?
8. Could you see yourself going to this college or training program? Why or why not?

9. What other questions do you have about this college or training option?
